

DEFINING GOALS IS AS IMPORTANT AS KICKING THEM

Regardless of the playing field, leadership, ingenuity and a clear sense of purpose are central to every successful outcome.

In project managing the Information and Communications Technology solutions for the Melbourne 2008 Homeless World Cup, IET understands the value of a coordinated team and is a proud supporter of this event.

IET provides informed management and implementation services for corporations and government. Our highly regarded ICT project delivery and consultancy teams solve problems and deliver results through quality, formalised project services.
